

Contents of number 30 (2014)

Dittander, the survival of a medieval herb in Chichester: Nick Sturt

Two businessmen of Chichester, George and William Combes, 1755-1869:
Patrick D Combes

The de Lambillys, a French émigré family in Chichester 1799-1825: Timothy J McCann

'A kind-hearted, inoffensive young man', Charles Dorrien (1809-66) of Lavant House, Sennicotts and Adsdean House: Terry Carlisle

Locally made writing paper: Adge Roberts

The Robert Henty memorial window, St Lawrence the Martyr Church, Abbots Langley, near Watford: Andrew Berriman

The Chichester typhoid outbreak, February 1879: Andrew Berriman

Book Review: Wealding the Willow, a portrait of English village grounds in the cradle of cricket, by Robin Whitcomb: Terry Timblick

'By George he knew his country folk', George Garland, photographer: Terry Timblick

Rosemary Richman, a wartime evacuee in Chichester 1939-43: Brian Worsfold

'Halt, who goes there?' wartime recollections: Eve Willard

Death in Chichester: Greg Slay

Professor Paul Foster (1935-2014), an appreciation: Alan H J Green